New/Free Country Conference '85

April 28, 1985/Golden Sails Hotel, Long Beach, Calif

Gary Hudson has been an active participant in the space industrialization field for the past 14 years. In 1980 he started G.C.H., Inc., an engineering research and development corporation based in the San Francisco Bay area, to design and prototype launch vehicle systems for commercial use. Educated in physics and medicine, Hudson has published Beyond Earth: A Personal View of Space Civilization, as well as a textbook on the physics and economics of space transportation systems.

Victor Koman, author of several science-fiction novels, among them Jonuta Rising! and The Carnadyne Horde, (both as "John Cleve") and the forthcoming "theological suspense novel", The Jehovah Contract. Mr. Koman has attended three universities in as many years, cultivating a profound distrust of formal education.

Marc Eric Ely-Chaitlin, has been politically active since the ripe old age of 17, when he began a short-lived movement to incorporate Dana Point as a city; at 19 ran for the City Council of Ashland, Oregon; at 20 joined the Libertarian Party — for only nine months duration after which he decided to withdraw from all partisan politics as he felt were deceptive and divisive. Applying organizational skills with libertarian principles he developed the Free Territory of Ely-Chatelaine, which was founded in December of 1975.

Michael Grossberg, is a journalist who frequently writes about the space movement. Currently a reporter and movie critic at the Victor Valley Daily Press, he previously worked at the Indianapolis News, The Daily Texan and Free Texas. He is the author of the Space Exploration and Unclaimed Property planks in the LP National Platform. In 1982, he founded the Libertarian Futurist Society, which explores free market approaches to space industrialization in its quarterly journal and sponsors the Prometheus Awards honoring pro-freedom fiction. Since 1981, Mr. Grossberg has served as executive director of the Free Press Association. He also has published freelance articles on a variety of subjects in Science Fiction Review, Laissez Faire Review, Libertarian Review, Private Practice and Reason Magazine.

Walter Patrick, is currently serving as head of council for Glory Road, a decade-old industrial commune dedicated to establishing self-sufficiency at sea. The Glory Road commune, which is staffed by a dozen people, has its own foundry and electronic shop.

Charles Curley is a computer programmer specialising in real-time process control and other applications where time is critical. He is the author of Advancing FORTH, a textbook on the programming language FORTH, due out from Computer Science Press this fall. Curley is active in the L-5 Society, for which he organized the 1984 Conference on Space Development. He is also a founding member of the National Committee to Legalize Gold. He also has authored The Coming Profit in Gold, published by Bantam.

Samuel E. Konkin III, who will take the place of Brad Linawaver on the panel "Libertarian Societies in Modern Fiction," is the editor of New Libertarian. Other organizations that Konkin has started include the Movement for a Libertarian Left, The George Orwell Society and New Libertarian Alliance. Considered as one of the leading advocates of the "Counter Economy," Konkin is most devoted to attacking party politics, primarily the Libertarian Party.

RAMPART INSTITUTE

P.O. BOX 26044, SANTA ANA, CA 92799 U.S.A.

Like the immortal bird Phoenix, Rampart Institute arose from the ashes of a long deceased organization that once held the respect and admiration in the movement for individual liberty. Opening its doors in 1956, Rampart College, originally located in the Rampart Range of the Colorado Mountains, became defunct in early 1975. Ever since its demise, a tremendous gap in the studies of liberty and free market economics has been apparent. In 1981 Rampart Institute was born to fill this void.

Now From The Exciting Speech
by Robert LeFevre... Comes An Exciting Booklet!

“Does Government Protection Protect?”

One of the best speeches by radio/TV commentator, newspaper columnist and author, Robert LeFevre. Taking a strong libertarian position towards protection, LeFevre argues that “Governments have never really said they are going to protect us” and that governments are more interested in getting people to obey legislative laws than actually providing protection.
LeFevre says that so-called government protection usually comes after the fact—after the crime has been committed.
And that usually governments give us only laws of retaliation. But, according to LeFevre, people want to be protected, not victimized.

(Price: $3.95 each, including $1.00 for shipping and handling).

FREELAND

III

APRIL 28, 1985

Golden Sails Hotel

Long Beach, California

Special Message: FREELAND III marks the third conference in a series on developing, exploring, discovering and settling lands or space with settlements dedicated to individual liberty. As the 20th century draws to a close, it appears that more and more nation-states are becoming repressive. Lands once thought to be free are seizing private land, taxing their citizens to almost 50 percent of their income, and showing general disregard for the rights of individuals. How long this tenancy will remain is anyone's guess.

However, there is some good news. FREELAND has been approached with a plan to develop a particular island into free, independent territory. The island is small, about 1,400 acres, but can be tripled in size. It has no native population and is for sale. It is one of the best free island projects we have seen in a long time. However, the cost is high, very high. But if the money problem can be overcome, this warm-climate island might be ideal for a FREELAND project.

Sincerely, L.K. SAMUELS
