

Hospers ran for United States president in 1972 on the Libertarian Party ticket, and later ran for governor of California in 1974. His recent article in The Freeman (June, 1983), "The Academy vs. the Marketplace", has generated more mail (and controversy) than anything he has previously written. He is the author of Will Capitalism Survive?, Understanding the Arts, and more recently, Human Conduct.

Robert LeFevre

Wendy McElroy

ROBERT LEFEVRE has been a fountainhead of the west coast libertarian movement almost since its inception. He is also one of the most controversial libertarians on the issues of justice and pacifism. LeFevre has had an extensive career in both broadcasting and journalism. In 1956 he founded the Freedom School in Colorado Springs, Colorado. He is the author of This Bread is Mine, The Nature of Man and His Government, The Philosophy of Ownership, and Lift Her Up Tenderly.

WENDY MCELROY is a contributing editor to Caliber, and is an associate editor of New Libertarian. She has published a comprehensive index to Liberty (1881-1908), an individualist-anarchist publication edited by Benjamin Tucker and Victor Yarrows, available through Dandelion Press. Freedom Feminism, and The State, her new book which she edited, is an anthology of individualist-feminist writings, published by CATO.

Lowell Ponte

Robert Poole

LOWELL PONTE, author of The Cooling, is a former think tank consultant to the Pentagon, the Burroughs Corp. and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. He is the roving science editor for Reader's Digest, and a contributing editor to Reason. He appears on KCRW Radio, Santa Monica as commentator for the show "Science in the News" and is alternate host KABC's "Open Mind" on weekends. His articles have appeared in such publications as The New York Times and The Los Angeles Times.

ROBERT POOLE is president of the Reason Foundation and editor-in-chief of Reason magazine. Poole is the editor of two books: Instead of Regulation and the forthcoming Defending a Free Society. Poole's monthly newspaper column, "Fiscal Watchdog", appears in over 160 newspapers across the country. He is also a radio commentator on the series "Perspective on the Economy", produced by the Manhattan Institute.

Ben Sasway

Irwin Schiff

BEN SASWAY was the first draft resister to be jailed after being convicted for refusing to register. He is currently on educational leave from Humboldt State University where he is studying Political Science and Philosophy. Sasway was brought to the attention of authorities when he wrote a letter to President Jimmy Carter on the day he was supposed to register for the draft, stating his reasons for opposing conscription and refusing to register.

IRWIN A. SCHIFF, author of The Biggest Con: How the Government is Fleecing You, is considered by some to be the father of the modern tax rebellion. A graduate of the University of Connecticut in economics and accounting, Schiff has openly stated that he hasn't paid income taxes since 1973. Schiff has appeared on numerous radio and TV talkshows, including Tom Snyder's Tomorrow Show, the David Susskind Show, Mid-Morning L.A., and Howard Ruff's Ruff House.

Butler Shaffer

Joyce Shulman

BUTLER D. SHAFFER has been a professor of law at Southwestern University School of Law in Los Angeles since 1977. From 1966 to 1968 he taught law, economics and psychology at Robert LeFevre's Rampart College in Colorado. He writes a regular weekly newspaper column, of the editorial page variety, for a number of daily newspapers across the nation. Shaffer is the author of two books: In Restraint of Trade: Business Attitudes Toward Competition and Regulation, 1918-1938 (being published by Humanities Press), and Calculated Chaos: The Institutional Causes of Social Conflict (now being considered for publication).

DRS. LEE and JOYCE SHULMAN are both in full-time private practice doing individual therapy, group therapy, marital and family therapy, psychological diagnostic evaluation, as well as supervising and training psychotherapists. Joyce Shulman is Executive Vice-President of a Blue Cross/Blue Shield Outpatient

FUTURE OF FREEDOM FILM FESTIVAL IS FRIDAY NIGHT

"The Fountainhead", starring Gary Cooper, Patricia Neal and Raymond Massey, is scheduled to play Friday night, October 21, at the Future of Freedom Film Festival in the Gokstad Room in the lower level of the College Center (Building E). Ayn Rand wrote the screenplay for this 1949 adaption of her novel by the same name. King Vidor directed, and Max Steiner composed the stirring film score.

This film is a must for all libertarians. A dynamite climax highlights this story of a young architect, Howard Roark, whose explosive battle against conventional standards pits him squarely against the woman he loves. Dominique Francon, while admiring Roark as a man of principles and integrity, believes she must defeat him for his own good before the slimy masses and sleazy intellectuals corrupt his soul and his work. But Roark is also a man of action, and when his architectural designs are revised without his permission, levels the villains in inimitable fashion.

Psychiatric Clinic in Michigan, and of the Institute for Personal Development in California. Lee Shulman is co-author (with Joan Kennedy Taylor) of When to See a Psychologist. He is the Director of a Blue Cross/Blue Shield Outpatient Psychiatric Clinic in Michigan and of the Institute for Personal Development in California. Both Lee and Joyce Shulman have made various appearances on radio and television, including most recently the radio program "The Health Connection" and The Cable Health Network.

Lee Shulman

George Smith

GEORGE H. SMITH has spoken frequently at the Future of Freedom Conferences and has proved to be one of our most popular speakers. Author of Atheism: The Case Against God, he studied philosophy at the University of Arizona. He is a research fellow for the Institute for Humane Studies, which is funding his new book on voluntary schooling vs. government schooling. Smith has lectured extensively for the CATO Institute.
