

Sy LEON will speak TUESDAY, AUGUST 31

On August 31, Sy Leon, co-founder of the League of Non-Voters and president of the Tustin based Rampart College, will speak to a general meeting of SLL. The speech will be held at Keystone Savings and Loan, 555 N. Euclid, Anaheim at 8 p.m.

Sy Leon and his League of Non-Voters has made countless headlines in newspapers and magazines. The Washington Post columnist Nicholas von Hoffman devoted an entire column to Sy Leon and his group saying that more people would go to the polls if they knew they did not have to vote for either candidates.

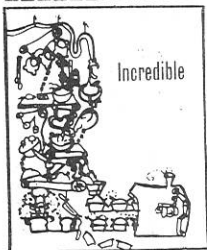

One of the major programs of Leon is his drive to put a box after the candidates which reads: "None Of The Above." In fact, by late August Leon's new book called "None of the Above" will be released. We will try to have some copies at Leon's speech.

The title of Leon's speech is "The Positive Aspects of Non-Voting." Leon says it will deal with certain chapters in his new book. Admission is free and there will be an opportunity for questions from the audience.

BOOK OFFER

In a continuing effort to keep SLL operating in the black, we are again asking for donations. But this time you get a value in return. For a donation of $5 and over, SLL will mail you a copy of The Incredible Bread Machine, which was authored by six college students and has now been made into a movie. The book gives a student view to economic and personal freedom. It is well worth the price, and it is a best-seller.

Please send me a copy of The Incredible Bread Machine. Enclosed is my contribution of:

$5  $10  $20  $50

SLL will HOST PARTY SATURDAY, AUGUST 28

It's party time again. On Saturday, August 28 at 8 p.m., SLL will host a get-together party at the Samuels' house, 1501 W. Woodcrest Ave., Fullerton. All SLL members, friends and persons who are interested in the libertarian philosophy are welcome to attend. SLL will provide food, but it is otherwise a BYOB party (SLL will provide some wine).

O.C. FAIR

By Janelle Boyer

For those who weren't aware of it and even for those who were there, the SLL/Libertarian Party booth at the Orange County Fair in July was fun as well as educational. Even in the midst of carnival chaos and animal auctions, the people who worked the booth managed to acquaint passers-by with at least a glimmer of the libertarian view point. Karl Bray, the well-known tax rebel, registered previously unregistered voters and even registered some in the Libertarian Party.

I would like to thank everyone from SLL who donated time, energy and money to help insure the booth's success.

I would also like to welcome Irwin Rodman, Burton Conway, Barbara Yerrington, Alan Stoneman, Bob Blair, Charles Hammill, Lee and Linda Freeman, Arlene Gomez, Jean Kaser, Kevin Kordes and others as new members of SLL.

I enjoyed working at the O.C. Fair and learned a lot from listening to the LP people. It was a great way to meet other people with similar ideas.

Janelle Boyer is the new Vice-Chair of SLL. She succeeds Rod Boyer, who was SLL Vice-Chair for almost two years.

LP ballot drive

As most should know by now, the Libertarian Party is working on a ballot drive to allow the Presidential ticket of MacBride and Bergland on the ballot in California. The deadline is September 3 and the LP needs 99,000 signatures. Whether or not you are a supporter of the LP and their candidates, it should be known that the LP is paying 25¢ a signature. Some people are making over $60 a day collecting signatures.

In Orange County, the person in charge of hiring people to collect signatures is Dottie Duncan. She can be reached at 557-4407.
