

GOVT. HAS MADE AN OFFER YOU CANNOT REFUSE!

YOU HAVE NO CHOICE!

When government decides on a course of action, you must pay the price. You must do what the government dictates. You must adhere or the guns of governments' persuasion will do it for you.

When government wants integration, children are forcibly bused. When government wants morality, it raids massage parlors. When government needs money, citizens are forced to contribute. When government needs men for war, it kidnaps citizens. When government wants education, it forces parents to send their children to government-ran schools. And when the people become agitated over too much governmental interference and physical force, government decides to keep the peace by confiscating the citizen's guns.

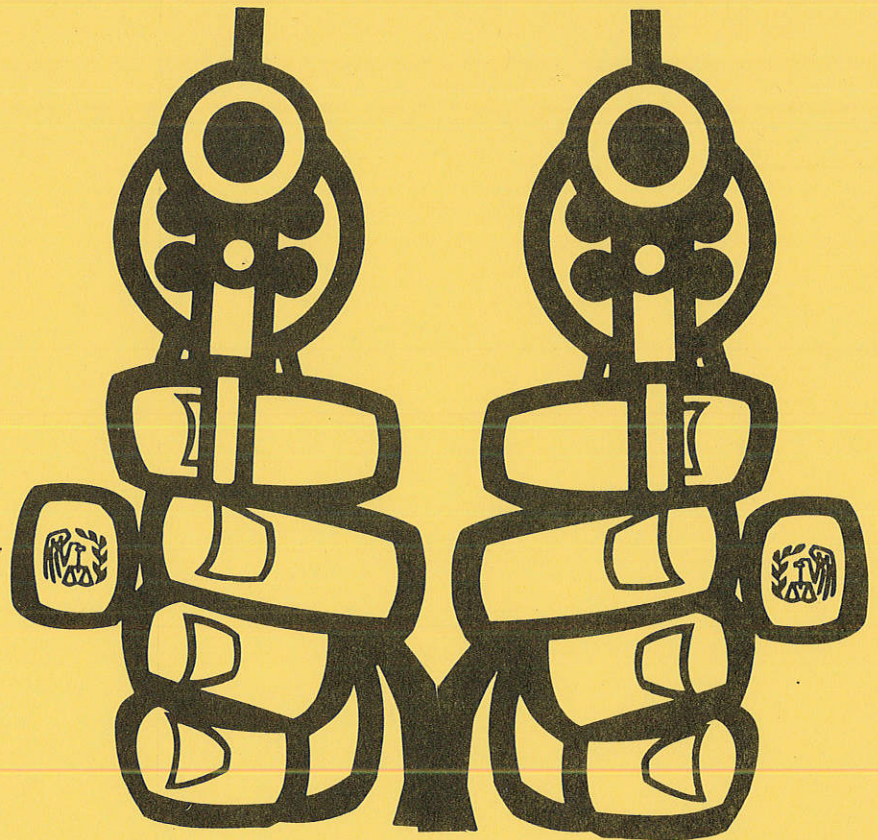

Government is supposed to protect the citizen from violence and fraud. But it appears that government is the largest employer of force and fraud.

As George Washington said, 'Government is not reason, it is not eloquence -- it is force.'
