

PROSTITUTION
CONSISTS OF TWO BASIC ELEMENTS--
SEX AND FREE ENTERPRISE.
WHICH ONE ARE YOU AGAINST?

Let's keep the working woman off the streets and her client out of jail. Let's decriminalize trade between consenting persons in a business that is often referred to as the world's oldest profession.

It's like any other business with customers and service. A value is traded for a value on a voluntary basis like any other business. If it were not for laws banning this victimless activity, prostitutes would not have to work the public streets to establish a clientele. Prostitution laws have instead put the working woman at the mercy of pimps, police and the underworld.

It's impossible to deter human nature towards sex or free enterprise. Let's recognize the course of human behavior. A demand exists for the service of prostitutes, and a supply is available. The laws of government are not going to change these facts. Victimless Crime Laws will produce only the opposite, encouraging more people to taste the forbidden fruit while allowing others to exploit the prostitute to the fullest.*

*Also includes male prostitutes.
